DETAILED ACTION

- 1. Newly submitted claim 18 is directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: the article claims, 1-17, can be made by a materially different process not requiring the particulars of the method claim (claim 18). Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claim 18 is withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.
- 2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-12 and 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rozenwasser '065. Rozenwasser teaches the claimed article limitations including a curved portion and a straight portion (Figs. 9-11). Regarding claim 4, see Fig. 9. Regarding claims 6 and 8, see Fig. 12. Regarding claim 9, see Fig. 10. Regarding claims 14-17, Rozenwasser teaches the claimed article structure. The amendment to claim 1, i.e., "a faceted surface obtained through a non-cutting deformation or movement of an outer wall", as well as the process limitations of claims 14-17 are given little if any weight in article claims. The finished structure of the claimed chain is met by the prior art chain. Process limitations within an article claim are considered to be product-by-process limitations. The process limitations in a product claim are not taken in account. The finished article structure claimed is what is compared against the prior art chain. See MPEP 2113. Regarding claim 1, the chain of the prior art is considered to teach facets; the way in which they are made is given no weight. With respect to claim 14-17, the way in which the finished product (chain) is made or put together is given no weight in the article claims.

- 3. Applicant's arguments filed 01/23/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The relied upon limitations: the way in which facets are made on the links (claim 1) or the way in which the chain is assembled (claims 14-17), is given little or no weight in the article claims. Applicant's arguments are based on the fact that the prior fails to teach the method in which the article structure is made; yet as treated in the body of the rejection supra, the way in which the article is manufactured in the product is given no weight.
- 4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
